

Bank Overview

Siam Commercial Bank, PCL (SCB) is one of the three largest banks in Thailand. SCB was established by royal charter in 1906 and was the first Thai bank to lay a financial and banking foundation in Thailand.

Recent challenges from the global economic slowdown, technological disruption and a shift in customer behavior have altered the landscape for the banking industry. Moving with the times, SCB has undergone major organizational change under the “SCB Transformation” program with a focus on customer-centricity, resulting in increased resilience by focusing on digital and data analytics, as well as forming strategic partnerships across different industries to develop platforms and ecosystems that can deliver personalized product and service solutions for all customers.
